

Last Updated:

4/26/2022

What is Little League All Stars?

The Little League® International Tournament, played each summer, is commonly referred to as the "All-Star" Tournament. The players on these teams assembled from a local league or district's regular-season team(s) are often identified as "All-Stars."

What is the North Boise Little League All Stars?

Each year NBLL forms baseball All Star teams to compete in the Idaho State Little League All Star Tournaments. This is the All-Star Tournament that leads to the Little League World Series for 12 yr old teams that win State & Regionals.

Who can try out for the NBLL All Star teams?

To be eligible for the All Star team the following conditions must be met:

- Players must prove residency in the NBLL boundaries.
- Players must have proof of age and school enrollment.
- Players must play on an NBLL team in the 2022 spring season.

There are also additional requirements to expect such as:

- Attending tryouts, potentially on multiple days.
- Completing all paperwork and forms accurately and timely.
- Provide multiple documents for proof of player age, residence, etc.

What ages of players may try out for the All Star team?

For the 2022 year, NBLL is planning baseball teams this year and will be having tryouts for players ages:

- League Age 9 & Under
- League Age 10
- League Age 11
- League Age 12
- League Age 13

NBLL follows the Little League International League Age policy. Their league age might be different than their current age. Please calculate the league age of your player before tryouts.

To find your child's league age go to: League Age Calculator \(littleleague.org\)

When are All Stars tryouts?

Sunday, May 15th at the Hillside Baseball Complex, please see specific age group for field location.

1:00 pm -- League age 9 and 10. Majors Field

2:30 pm – League age 11. Intermediate Field

4:00 pm – League age 12 and 13. Intermediate Field

It is imperative that you bring your player to correct league age tryout. Please calculate their league age on the above linked calculator.

What will the All Star summer schedule look like?

All Star teams typically practice 5–6 days a week starting the beginning of June and compete in local tournaments leading up to the District & State All-Star tournaments which usually start the last week of June and go until the 3rd week of July.

The local tournaments are not part of Little League but allow for play time leading up to the Little League district and state tournaments.

What are the anticipated All Stars baseball dates?

- NBLL All Star Tryouts – May 15
- End of NBLL 2022 Spring Season – May 25
- Local Tournaments - Late May and June
- Little League World Series Qualifying Tournaments (all dates to be confirmed)
 - Idaho Little League District 2 Tournament - Fourth week of June
 - Idaho State Little League Tournament (qualifiers only) - Third week of July
 - Little League Northwest Regional Tournament (qualifiers only) - Second week in August
- Little League World Series (qualifiers only) - Mid to Late August

We are interested in All Stars, what do I do next?

Plan to attend the appropriate tryout out on May 15th. Please calculate the league age of your player and attend the correct age session.

Send a confirmation email to Mike Prentiss, the NBLL All Star Director at allstars@northboisell.org.

Please include:

- Player Name
- Player Date of Birth
- Parent Name
- Parent Email Address

